Our readers rely on just one publication for authoritative, curated coverage of the latest in regional design and architecture.

SPACES

SAN FRANCISCO | MARIN | NAPA | SONOMA

SPACES, Marin Magazine's sister publication, is a biannual home design magazine showcasing the very best and the very latest in interior design, art, architecture, and landscape architecture for the Marin, San Francisco, Napa and Sonoma regions.

SPACES differs from other shelter trade magazines in the area because we direct mail to local affluent consumers who are this area's most targeted customers for home design products and services. The sophisticated design, editorial integrity and innovative marketing pages are highly reflective of this area — the features, departments and advertisements focus on the people, designs and products of this truly unique region.

In addition to being poly-bagged along with Marin Magazine's January and July issues and mailed out to select Marin Magazine subscribers, copies of SPACES are also mailed to a targeted group of affluent readers in San Francisco, Napa and Sonoma. Our expanded distribution includes mailing SPACES to 450 selected Bay Area designers. SPACES is also available throughout the year in the lobby of the San Francisco Design Center, select showrooms, and design events — and sold on the newsstands.

Editor-in-chief Zahid Sardar brings an extensive range of design interests and a keen knowledge of Bay Area design culture to SPACES magazine. He is a San Francisco editor, curator and author specializing in global architecture, interiors, landscape and industrial design. His work has appeared in design publications including Dwell, Interiors, Form, Architecture, Metropolis, I.D., Interior Design, House Beautiful, Elle Décor, House & Garden and the San Francisco Chronicle for which he served as an influential design editor for 22 years. Sardar has served on the San Francisco Decorator Showcase design advisory board for six years.
